History of Mauldin

- Originally called "Butler's Crossing," the area was renamed "Mauldin" in 1820 for Lt. Gov. W. L. Mauldin. "The community began to be known as Mauldin soon after the railroad depot was built in 1886. The depot was named "Mauldin" in honor of the former president of the Greenville and Laurens Railroad, William L. Mauldin (1845-1912), who later served as Lt. Governor from 1886 to 1990.
- In 1958 Mauldin's first fire department, made of all volunteers, was formed.
- The community was incorporated as the Town of Mauldin in 1890. The Town Council voted to change the name to City of Mauldin in 1969."
