4. Reports or communications from city officers
  - a. Budget reports- The budget is 4% under currently.
  - b. Chief Turner- Staffing is good in the department. CALEA went well. The personnel that Councilman Goodson requested will be available at this month's council meeting.
  - c. Angela Martin- The department is at 74%. The new judges are working out well.
  - d. Chief Sapp- The department is 3% under budget. 248 calls were run in October. The new engine should be here mid-November. The ladder truck will be here in January. On November 10-12th, an aerial operation class will be held at the cultural center.
5. Unfinished business.
6. New business.
  - a. Security cameras ( no attachments- report provided Monday night)
Based upon two auto break-in incidents that happened, security cameras are being looked at for the Sports Center. Two vendors we currently use already have come out and given us some opinions on what may be needed. Chief Turner also looked at it to see what he thinks. We should have quotes available by the council meeting.

This item was sent to council.
