Trey Eubanks reported that the police department is ready for the summer bash and the department is getting good comments on the new website unveiled at the council meeting.

A preconstruction meeting will be held September 14th at DOT on Pleasantburg at 2:00 p.m. on the 276 project.

Mayor Godbey reported the new city cable channel is great. A lot more information is being presented now to our citizens. We are going to help the GCRA publicize their CDBG programs. Mauldin High School is going to have a media class in which they will make video clips that we can include on the channel.

Leo Joyce commented on the cable channel and said it was nice to have police visibility around the high school.

Mayor Godbey mentioned that the Methodist Church and other area churches would be having a service in remembrance of 9/11 on Sunday.
