4. Reports or communications from city officers

- a. Budget report- Trey reported the budget for public works looks good.

The recycling program was submitted to the MASC for the achievement awards. Greg and Trey will be going to Columbia on Tuesday to present the program to their board.

5. Unfinished business.
6. New business.
7. Public Comment

Councilman Hunter asked about the overtime in public works regarding the snow storm response. Trey said we do budget to prepare for some overtime. The overtime budget is ok now, but we will have to keep an eye on it if there is any more. Councilman Hunter asked about the sand and salt supply. Trey said that supply was replenished. PW staff worked very hard during this snow and ice event. Councilman Hunter asked Trey to pass his thanks along to the department.

Mayor Godbey said the postal department collaborated with the pw department regarding the trouble spots. He was pleased with the inter-agency communication.

Chief Sapp, Chief Turner, and Trey met regarding the storm response. They were pleased with how things went. Some aspects of communication could be improved upon, but, overall, things went fairly smoothly.

Chairman Kennedy asked what kind of equipment the city has for these types of events. Trey said we have snow melt for the departments, four wheel drive vehicles, the backhoe was used to clear some areas.

8. Committee concerns.

9. Adjournment.- Chairman Kennedy adjourned the meeting.
Respectfully Submitted,

Cindy Miller
Municipal Clerk
